10 ARE CRUSHED TO DEATH IN BUS ACCIDENT

WOMEN, CHILDREN ARE VICTIMS AT NYACK, NEW YORK

VEHICLE RACED DOWN HILL AS IT RETURNED FROM AN EXCURSION

25 OTHERS SERIOUSLY INJURED ARE IN NYACK HOSPITALS

By DONALD R. UCKLER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Nyack, N. Y., July 23.—The terribly crushed bodies of seven women and three children lie in the Nyack hospital morgue, killed in the crash of a heavy motor bus loaded with 51 members of the "Mothers' Club of Plum Beach," Ridgewood, Brooklyn.

The vehicle overturned last night on a steep grade at Spark Hill, Rockland county, New York, as the party was returning from an excursion to Bear Mountain. Twenty-five seriously injured are in the Nyack hospital and 16 with minor injuries were transported across country to the Poplar Street station, in Brooklyn, and returned to their homes.

It is feared two of the injured in the hospitals here will die. Diminick Lastro, owner and driver of the bus, is held in the Nyack city jail for arraignment this morning on a charge of manslaughter. A faulty brake band is believed the cause of the accident.

Coroner Jerome Giles has launched an inquiry into the accident. Fully 50 relatives of the members of the excursion party today had visited the hospital to view the dead, of whom eight have been identified. Hundreds of telephone calls poured into the hospital throughout the night.

The party had begun their trip yesterday morning. The day was spent at Bear Mountain and as twilight came on, the bus, an open side vehicle of old fashioned type, was speeding down the west bank of the Hudson along the new Bear Mountain state highway. The hill descending to the Erie railway track at Sparkville has a heavy grade of about 30 per cent. According to a garage man who witnessed the tragedy, the machine appeared to be traveling at an unenviable rate of speed as it came hurtling down the hill. The driver sought to apply the brakes, but they failed to hold.

Losing its steering way, the big bus swerved sharply to the left with one brake holding, overturned, rolled across the Erie railroad tracks, somersaulted thrice as it came and landed upside down.

Screams of women and children came from the vehicle where the passengers were imprisoned beneath the crushed wreckage of the wooden upper portion of the machine.

Lieutenant William Stern of the Piedmont police, who arrived at the scene of the accident and summoned the local firemen, lifted the crushed tonneau off the bus bodily. His rescue work is believed to have saved the lives of five of the more seriously injured who were in danger of suffocation.

The dead and injured dropped out from the raised shell of the bus body as it was kept erect by more than a score of the rescue party.

St. Paul, July 23.—(UP)—Permission to operate on Minnesota highways for the greater part of a route between Sioux Falls, S. D., and Fargo, N. D., was asked of the state railroad and warehouse commission today by the Blue Goose Transportation Co.

The proposed route of the bus line would be on state highway No. 6 through the Minnesota communities of Pipestone, Canby, Madison, Ortonville, Wheaton, Graceville, Breckenridge and Moorhead.

The route would cross and make connection with a dozen east-west railroad lines and serve a district almost without north-south transportation, making one round trip daily.

CHARGE WOMEN ABUSED IN PRISON, LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

3 WOMEN SHACKLED AND FLOGGED BY MALE GUARD, CHARGED

GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE ALL THE SENSATIONAL CHARGES

Little Rock, Ark., July 23.—(UP)—Conditions in the Arkansas state prison farm for women, where, according to an affidavit, three women were shackled and flogged by a male guard—will be investigated by the grand jury, it was learned today.

The investigation of conditions in the farm was ordered by the grand jury shortly after Leona Bruce, who just has been paroled from the farm, filed an affidavit telling of the alleged torture meted out to three women inmates in the farm.

The affidavit charged that Winona Green, serving a life term for murder; Eunice Gregory, serving a term for grand larceny; and Ada Hay Smith, were shackled to a flogging post and given 13 lashes each as punishment for an attempt to escape. "I heard the licks and heard the screams of the women," the affidavit states. "It was common knowledge in the jail but everyone was told to remain quiet or be punished."

"I heard the guard say he was looking for the three women and that he would 'give them hell' when he found them." The girls said he gave them 13 lashes and beat them with a long leather strap until the blood came. After the girls were flogged they were placed in the stockade and they are there now on a bread and water diet, and some times bread and milk diet.

Two other girls were flogged previous to the triple whipping, the affidavit reports, but there was secrecy about the affair.

Reports of inhuman treatment came from the prison more than a year ago, reports including tales of floggings, but at that time they were vigorously denied by prison officials. However, an investigation was started several weeks ago culminating in the grand jury orders for a complete investigation of prison farm conditions.

16 MEMBERS OF CATHOLIC LEAGUE JAILED IN MEXICO

Those arrested were charged with sedition.

Four of the party were signatories of the proclamation outlining the Catholic program for an economic boycott of Mexico. The bulletin is said to have given a complete outline of the plan of economic reprisals favored by the church, as a counter move against the severity of the Calles government of Mexico.

POINCARÉ NAMES A NEW CABINET FOR THE FRENCH

SUPERFICIAL REPORTS INDICATE A COALITION CABINET FORMED

THIS MANY PEOPLE BELIEVE ESSENTIAL TO SUCCESS OF THE FRENCH FINANCE

By A. L. BRADFORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, July 22.—Raymond Poincaré today completed his cabinet slate with the exception of two portfolios and immediately departed for the Elysee Palace to advise President Doumergue of his appointments.

"We have formed a cabinet of the widest national union, in which all parties are represented without taking into account the question of parliamentary groups," Poincaré told the United Press, as he emerged from the Elysee, after seeing Doumergue. "We tried to accomplish this task by maintaining our ideals at the highest possible point."

"Our first cabinet meeting will take place at 3 P. M. and I will return to the Elysee at 7 P. M. with the official cabinet list."

Shortly after Poincaré conferred with Doumergue, it was officially announced that the last two cabinet portfolios had been filled.

Henri Queille, who had been tentatively selected for the ministry of agriculture, was definitely established in that post and Andre Fallieres was selected for the ministry of labor.

Poincaré, who vigorously opposed ratification of the Mellon-Berenger debt funding agreement without final amendments and who is the man responsible for the French invasion and occupation of the Ruhr in 1923, apparently had succeeded in creating the coalition cabinet, which many persons believe to be essential to the success of French finance.

The cabinet list was as follows: Premier and minister of finance—Poincaré.

Minister of Justice—Barthou.

Minister of the interior—Saraud.

Minister of foreign affairs—Briand.

Minister of public works—Tardieu.

Minister of commerce—Bokanowsky.

Minister of colonies—Perrier.

Minister of war—Painleve.

Minister of the navy—Leygues.

Minister of public instruction—Herriot.

Minister of pensions—Marin.

Minister of agriculture—Queille.

Minister of labor—Andrew Fallieres.

The foregoing cabinet would extend from right to left in the chamber without reaching the monarchists on one side nor the communists on the other. It would be such a coalition cabinet as Briand and Herriot each sought recently.

Andrew Tardieu is the disciple and protégé of Georges Clemenceau, and it was expected during the storms which preceded the last defeat of a Briand cabinet that Tardieu might become the leader of France in her emergency. Maurice Bokanowsky is of the right and has been a leader in intelligent criticism of some of the financial proposals of the succession of ministers, who have failed to assist France during the past year. Paul Painleve, Aristide Briand, Albert Sarraut, Edouard Herriot and several others are of the left.

ROUND UP WOMEN IN THE UNDERWORLD OF CANTON, OHIO

Canton, O., July 23.—(UP)—A roundup of women in Canton's underworld districts was started today by police in a renewed effort to find the slayers of Don R. Mellett, publisher of the Canton Daily News murdered here a week ago.

Chief of Police S. A. Lengel said he hoped by examination of women in touch with activities of gangsters, to get information which might lead to discovery of the plot thought responsible for Mellett's assassination.

Independent investigators set up headquarters in the Daily News building with Ora Slater, Cincinnati detective employed by Stark county in charge.

CLAIM LIQUOR SOLD ON THE S. S. LEVIATHAN

PROHIBITION OFFICIALS ARE TO INVESTIGATE THE CHARGES

MAY INSTITUTE PADLOCK PROCEEDINGS AGAINST LARGE SHIP

By JOSEPH S. WASNEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 23.—Investigation was started today by prohibition officials into charges made by the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment that liquor was being served and sold on the S. S. Leviathan, which is owned and operated by the government.

Padlock proceedings against the largest ship afloat may be instituted if the charges are sustained.

James E. Jones, director of prohibition, said he had heard rumors before that liquor was being sold aboard the Leviathan.

"It would be up to the United States district attorney for New York to proceed against the ship if it is found the law had been violated," Jones said.

Captain W. S. Stayton, chairman of the wet organization, made the charges in a written statement asserting "liquor is flowing again on ships owned and operated by the United States government."

Stayton said a member of his organization recently made a trip on the Leviathan and saw three men mixing cocktails and serving liquor in the dining salon every night.

"Many bottles of gin, vermouth and whisky were in evidence," Stayton said. "One man told my informant he had bought a bottle of Scotch from a steward for $12. Others told him liquor could be bought from the steward."

"Sale of liquor on government owned ships apparently was stopped after the exposure two years ago, but I fear there can be little doubt that the authorities are now conniving at bootlegging by stewards and other employees."

EXPECT MURDERER OF GUARD TO BE ON WAY TO CHICAGO

Chicago, July 23.—(UP)—Chief police officials today said they confidently expected C. R. Holland, one of six convicts, who escaped from a prison farm at Midway, Tex., after killing a guard and wounding two trustees yesterday to come to Chicago.

Holland was arrested in Chicago, March 1, 1926, following a previous escape from a prison farm at Huntsville, Tex. At that time he threatened to come back and kill the two detectives who arrested him. Chicago police characterized him today as a desperate criminal with no regard for human life and predicted that he would come back to fulfill his threat.

Powers of State Railroad Warehouse Com. Curbed

St. Paul, July 23.—(UP)—The powers of the state railroad and warehouse commission were curbed further today by the Minnesota supreme court in a ruling holding that the commission has no authority to force physical connections or junctions between interstate railroads.

The court held that the state law giving the commission such powers has been nullified and that such authority is vested solely in the interstate commerce commission.

A United States supreme court decision was made the basis for the ruling on which the state tribunal reversed itself, having previously ruled in favor of the state body and citizens who were attempting to force the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad to make a physical connection with the Great Northern railroad at Pipestone.

INTEREST IN SERMON OF REV. NORRIS

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, DIVINE TO DEFEND RIGHT OF SELF DEFENSE

MINISTER IS CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF RICH LUMBERMAN

Fort Worth, Texas, July 23.—(UP)—Considerable interest was manifest here today in the forthcoming sermon Sunday by the Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist church, who will defend the right of self defense in his regular Sunday service.

Norris is charged with the murder of D. E. Chipps, lumberman, who was killed in the study of the First Baptist church last Saturday.

The pastor is out on $10,000 bond in connection with the case.

The interest which has been worked up in the forthcoming sermon deals with the possibility that Norris, known as the "Texas Tornado," because of his bitter attacks on civic conditions, may bring out many facts in the sharp religious controversy which has raged about him for more than a year. The pastor today would not indicate what he would discuss in his sermon, other than to say: "I will explain my stand in the killing of Chipps to my congregation."

Grand jury investigation of the shooting of Chipps has been continued until Tuesday when additional witnesses will be asked to testify.

KU KLUX KLAN TO TAKE NO OFFICIAL PART

Fort Worth, Texas, July 23.—The Ku Klux Klan, of which the Rev. J. Frank Norris has been recognized as a leader, probably will have no official part in handling the defense of the pastor, who is charged with the murder of D. E. Chipps, lumberman, a high Klan official said today.

"It was decided several weeks ago that politics and other such matters would not be made an issue in this Klan (the Fort Worth Klan of Realm 116) and I am sure the Norris case will not be taken up officially," he said.

Discussion of the matter, before the body will be limited to the absolute minimum tonight, it was said.

Selecting Jury to Try Hy. Unschuld

Buffalo, Minn., July 23.—(UP)—Selection of a jury to try Henry Unschuld, Minneapolis promoter, on an embezzlement charge, continued in Wright county district court today.

Unschuld was indicted charged with aiding and abetting Carl M. Melberg, former president of the Maple Lake State bank, and Hugo H. Sievers, former president of the First National bank of Buffalo, in the alleged grand larceny of $15,000 from the Maple Lake institution. Sievers was found guilty of a similar charge and is serving a term in the Stillwater penitentiary.

Of thirty prospective jurors who reported when the trial started yesterday, but two had been accepted when court adjourned. Four were excused.

MELLON CARES FOR NO ARGUMENTS WHILE IN EUROPE

IS ON CONTINENT FOR PERSONAL AND FAMILY REASONS

WISHES NO CONTROVERSY WITH WINSTON CHURCHILL, CHANCELLOR OF EXCHEQUER

By JOHN O'BRIEN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Cherbourg, France, July 23.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is in Europe for personal and family reasons, does not expect to see any European leaders while here and does not desire to enter into a controversy with Winston Churchill, British chancellor of the exchequer.

These were Mellon's declarations to a United Press correspondent on reaching Europe today aboard the White Star liner Majestic. He refused to discuss Churchill's contradiction of Anglo-American debt statements, made by him before leaving New York.

The British chancellor of the exchequer had said Mellon was under "a serious misapprehension of the facts of the case," in saying that British war loans had been used for commercial purposes.

"I do not desire to enter into any controversy with Mr. Churchill," Mellon said. "My original statement, in a form letter, was aimed at clearing up the misunderstanding of the situation. I haven't the text of Churchill's recent speech and therefore I do not desire to comment."

A United Press correspondent handed Mr. Mellon the London Times report of the speech.

"I'll read it and perhaps make a formal statement later," he said. "But I am here entirely for personal and family reasons. I am going by automobile to visit my daughter. I do not expect to visit Paris or see European personages."

Those who spoke with the secretary have obtained the impression that if political and financial leaders desire to confer with Mellon, the initiative must come from them.

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 23.—Eight states have authorized referendums on prohibition for the fall.

The Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, in a survey made for the United Press, today revealed that legal requirements have been met to enable voters to express their opinions on prohibition in New York, Wisconsin, Missouri, Colorado, California, Montana, Illinois and Nevada.

Upon the outcome of these polls will rest the campaign of the wets for modification of the Volstead act in the next congress.

Although proposals for a national referendum failed in congress, the association has been working quietly in important states where the legality of referendums is unquestioned. Because of the political and legislative importance of the eight states involved, the outcome is expected to be accepted as an approximation of a national poll.

Stayton said a member of his organization recently made a trip on the Leviathan and saw three men mixing cocktails and serving liquor in the dining salon every night.

"Many bottles of gin, vermouth and whisky were in evidence," Stayton said. "One man told my informant he had bought a bottle of Scotch from a steward for $12. Others told him liquor could be bought from the steward."

"Sale of liquor on government owned ships apparently was stopped after the exposure two years ago, but I fear there can be little doubt that the authorities are now conniving at bootlegging by stewards and other employees."

EXPECT MURDERER OF GUARD TO BE ON WAY TO CHICAGO

Chicago, July 23.—(UP)—Chief police officials today said they confidently expected C. R. Holland, one of six convicts, who escaped from a prison farm at Midway, Tex., after killing a guard and wounding two trustees yesterday to come to Chicago.

Holland was arrested in Chicago, March 1, 1926, following a previous escape from a prison farm at Huntsville, Tex. At that time he threatened to come back and kill the two detectives who arrested him. Chicago police characterized him today as a desperate criminal with no regard for human life and predicted that he would come back to fulfill his threat.

Powers of State Railroad Warehouse Com. Curbed

St. Paul, July 23.—(UP)—The powers of the state railroad and warehouse commission were curbed further today by the Minnesota supreme court in a ruling holding that the commission has no authority to force physical connections or junctions between interstate railroads.

IS ON CONTINENT FOR PERSONAL AND FAMILY REASONS

WISHES NO CONTROVERSY WITH WINSTON CHURCHILL, CHAN-CELLOR OF EXCHEQUER

By JOHN O'BRIEN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Cherbourg, France, July 23.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is in Europe for personal and family reasons, does not expect to see any European leaders while here and does not desire to enter into a controversy with Winston Churchill, British chancellor of the exchequer.

These were Mellon's declarations to a United Press correspondent on reaching Europe today aboard the White Star liner Majestic. He refused to discuss Churchill's contradiction of Anglo-American debt statements, made by him before leaving New York.

The British chancellor of the exchequer had said Mellon was under "a serious misapprehension of the facts of the case," in saying that British war loans had been used for commercial purposes.

"I do not desire to enter into any controversy with Mr. Churchill," Mellon said. "My original statement, in a form letter, was aimed at clearing up the misunderstanding of the situation. I haven't the text of Churchill's recent speech and therefore I do not desire to comment."

A United Press correspondent handed Mr. Mellon the London Times report of the speech.

"I'll read it and perhaps make a formal statement later," he said. "But I am here entirely for personal and family reasons. I am going by automobile to visit my daughter. I do not expect to visit Paris or see European personages."

Those who spoke with the secretary here obtained the impression that if political and financial leaders desire to confer with Mellon, the initiative must come from them.

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, July 23.—Eight states have authorized referendums on prohibition for the fall.

The Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, in a survey made for the United Press, today revealed that legal requirements have been met to enable voters to express their opinions on prohibition in New York, Wisconsin, Missouri, Colorado, California, Montana, Illinois and Nevada.

Upon the outcome of these polls will rest the campaign of the wets for modification of the Volstead act in the next congress.

Although proposals for a national referendum failed in congress, the association has been working quietly in important states where the legality of referendums is unquestioned. Because of the political and legislative importance of the eight states involved, the outcome is expected to be accepted as an approximation of a national poll.

Howard C. Purchase of Fall River, the man who started these egg-eating contests while he was serving on a jury at Taunton, did it again just to prove that he had done it. He ate four dozen eggs and drank three quarts of milk. After a brief walk he returned to his home, went to sleep and woke up wondering when supper would be ready.—Boston Globe.

Tribute to Mighty London

London, the world's metropolis and the heart of the British empire, has been for more than two centuries the political and commercial center of the globe. Its position is unique and such as no other city in history has attained. It is the capital and center of the world-wide British empire and is the headquarters from which more than a quarter of the entire population of the globe, occupying more than a quarter of the world's area, is governed.—Christian Science Monitor.

The Dictionary Did It

Dr. Charles H. Mayo, the famous surgeon, said on disembarking from the Columbus in New York:

"The Coue treatment still flourishes in Europe. This treatment always cures men of the type of Ferguson. Ferguson's daughter rang up the family doctor the other morning at 8 a. m.

"Oh, doctor," she said, "can you come to father at once? He is nearly out of his mind with the pain of aene, arthritis, apoplexy, adenoids, ague, aphid, arteriosclerosis, appendicitis, anemia, angina pectoris and asthma."

"My goodness!" said the doctor. "What's the man been up to?"

"Well, you see," said the young girl, "he bought a second-hand medical dictionary yesterday afternoon, and he spent the evening reading it."

Bungalows Built of Iron

Bungalows made of cast iron plates are the latest product of a Glasgow constructor. The bungalows are erected in groups of 100 with a brick wall between each one. The designer claims that they can be erected at the rate of two a week with a minimum of skilled labor.

The cast iron plates used in the construction are 5-16 inches thick and are 3 feet 7 1/2 inches long by 2 feet 6 1/2 inches wide. They are constructed somewhat on the order of weatherboard. All bolts are on the interior side and pockets are cast into the plate for the reception of these bolts.

Numbers World's Jews

How many Jews are there in the world? According to the expert, Doctor Lestschinsky, there were in the world only a few more than 14,000,000 in 1925, and the rate of increase is not great. Of the total, the vast majority, namely 9,232,276 live in Europe. America has only 3,844,089, and Asia, Africa and Australia insignificant numbers. In 1897, Europe contained nearly 84 per cent of all the world's Jews; today it has only 63 per cent. The Jewish movement toward the new world is distinctly visible. Now the Jews in America are 2.1 per cent of the total population.

Belfry Trouble

David, age five, was playing carpenter. Nancy, age three, stood watching him. David pounded and pounded with his hammer on the various nails and boards, making a great deal of racket. Nancy at last could stand it no longer and, putting her hand to her head, she said, "Oh, David, please stop, that makes my attic hurt so bad."

Hard-Working Novelist

It is said of Charles Dickens that whenever he emerged from his home after working on one of his novels, he was as haggard looking as a beggar. And the experiences of other authors indicate that novel writing requires a close confinement that is not altogether good for the health.

Britain Behind the Times

Britain contains more unclaimed money than any other country in the world. This is due to the complexity of civilization in the islands, the wandering habits of the race and, above all, to the lack of any system of distributing derelict wealth. Such a system exists everywhere else that counts; but in England, ownerless gold steadily accumulates year after year.

W. H. Triplett

Little Visits

Around the Rural Section

Written especially for the Dispatch by W. H. Triplett, travelling editor for this paper and The Farmer of St. Paul.

During my travels throughout the country I often hear one remark that should be printed in the news papers and what should not. The press is open to all and we take great pleasure in inviting each and every one of our readers to give any suggestions that will make the paper one of more news, educational and rich in valuable information as we are doing our best to fulfill every one's wishes so let's cooperate and make the Dispatch the best paper in the Northwest.

Thursday morning we first called on Arthur Peterson, who has farmed 80 acres for five years. He is milking 10 cows and is breeding toward a Guernsey herd. He remarked that he would like to have a sjo but will have to get along this year without one as he is building a new 32x40 barn. Three acres of alfalfa make up the major part of the hay crop.

Andrew Peterson has lived in the community over 30 years and has been prominent in the community, having held most every office that one could mention. At present he is renting 60 acres and milking five cows. Two acres of alfalfa were seeded the first of July without a nurse crop and it is coming up wonderfully well. Mrs. Peterson's hobby is raising chickens which is not only an enjoyable but also a profitable enterprise.

Eric Peterson had about the hottest place one can find on a farm when I called to see him. One may think it is hot sitting in an office but when one gets in the haymow as Mr. Peterson was he soon finds that he is in a pretty hot place. Mr. Peterson worked in the shops at Brainerd for 18 years, then moved out in the country where he has lived for the last 23 years. He has a field of red top that looks fine as do all of his crops.

We drove over two miles wondering all the time when the next farm would show up. Finally we came to J. F. Edquist's place only to find him gone. His children, Walter, Nettie and Margaret are running the place while their folks are making an extended visit with relatives in South Dakota. Electricity on the place makes life more pleasant and lightens the burdens of farm work.

Twenty years ago the first Cuyuna iron mine was sunk on Martin Olson's father's homestead. Martin has farmed the place which consists of 80 acres, for the last eight years, usually putting in four acres of potatoes annually which is his major cash crop. He has worked in the mines off and on and plans on going back again this fall.

Dan Peterson still holds down his job as caretaker of the Omaha mine although it has been closed down for the last three years. At present he is working a drill at the Sycamore mine. They have a few cows and chickens to supply them with products for home use. Mrs. Aspholm is helping Mrs. Peterson with baking this afternoon as Mrs. Peterson is entertaining the Forward Society this evening.

I drove over to the town that was once known as Woodrow and found that it was abandoned with the exception of a few families. Mr. Dailum who runs the store and postoffice, and Mr. McKay who works on the railroad were not at home. Nor was Mr. Zoder who works on the road.

We had the pleasure of talking to a man today who was well versed in farm problems such as cooperative creameries, etc., and who made the remark that one trouble with the farmers as a class of people was that they will not stick together. Also it is his opinion that our newspapers are a detriment to the country. It would be hard to imagine our world as it is today, without the newspaper. We would all have the same feeling as though we were lost in a desert and had no means of communication with anyone to help us to escape. I think one who does not believe in newspapers should visit a modern office such as we have here in our little city and see how the news of the world is gathered for publication. The Dispatch welcomes all visitors and such a visit would be educational and enjoyable.

Showing a charming little sport hat of tan bangkok, turned up in the back, with tan and blue grosgrain band, and plaited trimming.

Neck Decorations May Be Any of Many Styles

Several new styles in collars are seen. The bateau, which suffered a temporary eclipse last season—is once more in style, and in some evening and afternoon gowns is cut wider, to touch the tip of each shoulder. The dropped neckline is also fashionable and is seen much in the evening gowns cut after the idea of the robe de style. Martial et Armand use a graceful rounding neck with a kerchief collar, and Jeanne Lanvin and Patou are cutting some of their smart frocks for daytime in a V. Chantal has designed a new and distinctly fetching collar of white or gaudie, cut like a yoke.

Evening Contrasts

The ensemble idea has extended to the more formal evening costumes. Some of these secure striking individuality by means of color contrasts. The dresses themselves are usually of beaded chiffon. Over this is worn a light velvet coat of a contrasting color. Pink is frequently combined with green or mediterranean blue, lemon with coral, and mauve with emerald green.

FASHIONS

By HEDDA HOYT

New York, July 23.—(UP)—Since the main business of the Summer frock is to be colorful we offer a few new color suggestions. Black, navy and dark shades are almost disappearing as warm weather creeps on. Pastel shades rule for play and evening wear.

Claret and wine shades are the newest to appear in smart Fifth Avenue shop windows. One can hardly describe the new wine shade since it has a rose hue that is indescribable in its loveliness. Satin dresses of this shade and felt or velvet hats are conspicuous in the better class shops.

Light blue is one of the most popular evening colors worn by Broadway actresses. At a recent benefit at least one-fourth of the performers wore various shades of pastel blue chiffon, tulle or silk crepe.

Slate blue is the shade Paris is effecting at present. This is a soft slate blue color which will be very becoming to wearers of duller blue tones.

Yellow is popular in New York, particularly in a shade called "sunny". It is chosen for sports as well as evening wear. Some of the new-

Of all the coffee growing arias in the world, only seven districts produce the delicious coffees chosen for the Empress blend.

Cosmopolitan Dishes for the Connoisseur

WHEN friend husband or perhaps a critical family have had too much routine in their meals, the housewife can give them a welcome change by serving an occasional meal of foreign dishes. In no way is the United States more truly a melting pot than in its composite diet, for into the cooking pots of all the nations. Odd dishes are no puzzle to the housewife who buys them in cans. With the help of prepared foods, she can serve an Italian, French, Chinese, or Mexican dinner that will be as delicious as it is novel.

One may serve French dinners of infinite variety with the help of canned foods, for French cooks have contributed extensively to the canners' lists and the canners have supplied materials which may be combined into French dishes—this in addition to those already combined before canning. The completeness with which we have taken over French cooking methods is illustrated by the words found in English dictionaries, such as bouillon, aspic, paté, soufflé, braise, mayonnaise, meringue. Many involved French methods are made easy by the use of canned foods.

A French dinner that will be most easily prepared draws on canned soups for bisque, bouillon, or julienne as a first course. A mushroom omelette, creamed mushrooms, or chicken à la king may follow. Though all the world raises and eats mushrooms, the methods of canning them as well as their many uses are credited to French cooks, who use them extensively. Omelettes are a French invention and so are creamed dishes. Another good French dish which may be used as a meat substitute is a cheese fondue made of canned tomatoes or tomato soup and American cheese, which also comes in cans. A typical French dessert is fruit and cheese for which the housewife can call on her reserve shelf of canned foods.

Spaghetti is the principal element of an Italian dinner, combining well with almost any other food for a good menu. It comes in cans prepared in Italian style with tomato and cheese and also with tomato alone. Minestrone, really vegetable soup, comes first, or if the dinner is a bit elaborate, hors d'oeuvres of sardines, pimiento, olives, all to be obtained in cans, also salami, pickled beets, give the real Italian touch. A salad and coffee follow all other courses.

When one mentions a Chinese dinner, the name chop suey jumps to mind immediately. About this one dish the dinner may be built and no matter what the innovations the chop suey preserves the Chinese identity of the meal. It comes in cans and needs only reheating. Noodle soup, which may be made by adding noodles to canned consomme, is a Chinese dish and boiled rice is the inevitable supplement to the chop suey. Canned pineapple and Chinese tea, weak and clear, complete the meal.

Something altogether different may be secured for a dinner by consulting the Mexican dishes supplied by the canners. Tamales and chili con carne, both highly flavored, are obtained already cooked and like chop suey need only to be reheated. Chili con carne is an excellent way to introduce the family to red kidney beans which are high in food value. Both these dishes are hearty, need no meat served with them, and the supplementary dishes should be a salad or fruit and coffee. Mexicans drink their coffee black and very strong.

Many more suggestions for variety in meals may be obtained from the foreign dishes prepared by canners. Of German dishes their main selection is sauerkraut. There is Hungarian goulash, Russian caviar, Scotch haddock, Newfoundland codfish cakes, English plum pudding, California figs, foods from all over the world, from all the nations whose representatives make up the American commonwealth. The nation they have slowly pushed aside, the American Indians, have left with the canners a food legacy of great value, succotash, first prepared by Indian squaws.

er hats of felt or straw come in this shade.

Green may be said to lead above all other colors for sports wear and the most popular shades are bottle, almond, grass and chartreuse.

Colored fur and brushed wool form the collars of many sports coats. For instance, a bluish green woolen coat has a collar of matching green brushed wool. An evening cape of orchid chiffon has a collar of orchid-dyed ermine.

Colored jewelry becomes conspicuous as Summer gets underway. Green in onyx, jade or malachite tones, carnelian, amber, turquoise, amethyst and coral are popular. Bracelets set with huge colorful stones connected with large gold links are those most in demand. Earrings and bracelets of white crystal are noted at evening time. Necklaces of solid colored beads rule for daywear and in many cases they are of semi-precious type.

Shoes and hosiery keep to light shades in harmony with the vogue for light-colored frocks and wraps.

One of Nature's Mysteries

If you put a little salt in water it dissolves. Boil the water away and the salt reappears. What then becomes of the salt while it is dissolved in water? The water dissolves it into small particles highly charged with the wonderful and mysterious stuff we call electricity. The scientist, Rowson, tells us there is no other substance on earth which does that when dissolved in water. It might be worth a good deal to the world to know why salt has this peculiarity.—Capper's Weekly.

"Whipping the Cat"

In colonial days an apprentice who had completed his term of service in learning the shoemaking trade usually started out in business in a manner that was known as "whipping the cat," which meant journeying from town to town, living with a family while making a year's supply of shoes for each member of the family and then leaving to fill other engagements previously made.

Appetite to Be Envied

Howard C. Purchase of Fall River, the man who started these egg-eating contests while he was serving on a jury at Taunton, did it again just to prove that he had done it. He ate four dozen eggs and drank three quarts of milk. After a brief walk he returned to his home, went to sleep and woke up wondering when supper would be ready.—Boston Globe.

Farms Given Names

It is estimated that at least 3,000 farms have been named. The Department of Agriculture favors the plan. Farms that have been given names are usually progressive and products bearing farm names are usually those that the farmer is proud to claim.

Forbid Wood Shingles

Pittsburgh and some other cities have forbidden wood shingles for a number of years because of the fire hazard.

Tribute to Mighty London

London, the world's metropolis and the heart of the British empire, has been for more than two centuries the political and commercial center of the globe. Its position is unique and such as no other city in history has attained. It is the capital and center of the world-wide British empire and is the headquarters from which more than a quarter of the entire population of the globe, occupying more than a quarter of the world's area, is governed.—Christian Science Monitor.

The Dictionary Did It

Dr. Charles H. Mayo, the famous surgeon, said on disembarking from the Columbus in New York: "The Cure treatment still flourishes in Europe. This treatment always cures men of the type of Ferguson." "Ferguson's daughter rang up the family doctor the other morning at 8 a. m."

"Oh, doctor," she said, "can you come to father at once? He is nearly out of his mind with the pain of acne, arthritis, apoplexy, adenoids, ague, aphasia, arteriosclerosis, appendicitis, anemia, angina pectoris and asthma." "My goodness!" said the doctor. "What's the man been up to?"

Bungalows Built of Iron

Bungalows made of cast iron plates are the latest product of a Glasgow constructor. The bungalows are erected in groups of 100 with a brick wall between each one. The designer claims that they can be erected at the rate of two a week with a minimum of skilled labor.

The cast iron plates used in the construction are 5-16 inches thick and are 3 feet 7 1/2 inches long by 2 feet 6 1/2 inches wide. They are constructed somewhat on the order of weatherboard. All bolts are on the interior side and pockets are cast into the plate for the reception of these bolts.

Numbers World's Jews

How many Jews are there in the world? According to the expert, Doctor Lestschinsky, there were in the world only a few more than 14,000,000 in 1925, and the rate of increase is not great. Of the total, the vast majority, namely 9,232,276 live in Europe. America has only 3,844,080, and Asia, Africa and Australia insignificant numbers. In 1897, Europe contained nearly 84 per cent of all the world's Jews; today it has only 63 per cent. The Jewish movement toward the new world is distinctly visible. Now the Jews in America are 2.1 per cent of the total population.

Belfry Trouble

David, age five, was playing carpenter. Nancy, age three, stood watching him. David pounded and pounded with his hammer on the various nails and boards, making a great deal of racket. Nancy at last could stand it no longer and, putting her hand to her head, she said, "Oh, David, please stop, that makes my attic hurt so bad."

Hard-Working Novelist

It is said of Charles Dickens that whenever he emerged from his home after working on one of his novels, he was as haggard looking as a beggar. And the experiences of other authors indicate that novel writing requires a close confinement that is not altogether good for the health.

Britain Behind the Times

Britain contains more unclaimed money than any other country in the world. This is due to the complexity of civilization in the islands, the wandering habits of the race and, above all, to the lack of any system of distributing derelict wealth. Such a system exists everywhere else that counts; but in England, ownerless gold steadily accumulates year after year.

Little Visits

Around the Rural Section

Written especially for the Dispatch by W. H. Triplett, travelling editor for this paper and The Farmer of St. Paul.

During my travels throughout the country I often hear one remark what should be printed in the news papers and what should not. The press is open to all and we take great pleasure in inviting each and every one of our readers to give any suggestions that will make the paper one of more news, educational and rich in valuable information as we are doing our best to fulfill every one's wishes so let's cooperate and make the Dispatch the best paper in the Northwest.

Thursday morning we first called on Arthur Peterson, who has farmed 80 acres for five years. He is milking 10 cows and is breeding toward a Guernsey herd. He remarked that he would like to have a silo but will have to get along this year without one as he is building a new 32x40 barn. Three acres of alfalfa make up the major part of the hay crop.

Andrew Peterson has lived in the community over 30 years and has been prominent in the community, having held most every office that one could mention. At present he is renting 60 acres and milking five cows. Two acres of alfalfa were seeded the first of July without a nurse crop and it is coming up wonderfully well. Mrs. Peterson's hobby is raising chickens which is not only an enjoyable but also a profitable enterprise.

Eric Peterson had about the hottest place one can find on a farm when I called to see him. One may think it is hot sitting in an office but when one gets in the haymow as Mr. Peterson was soon finds that he is in a pretty hot place. Mr. Peterson worked in the shops at Brainerd for 18 years, then moved out in the country where he has lived for the last 29 years. He has a field of red top that looks fine as do all of his crops.

We drove over two miles wondering all the time when the next farm would show up. Finally we came to J. F. Edquist's place only to find him gone. His children, Walter, Nettie and Margaret are running the place while their folks are making an extended visit with relatives in South Dakota. Electricity on the place makes life more pleasant and lightens the burdens of farm work.

Twenty years ago the first Cuyuna iron mine was sunk on Martin Olson's father's homestead. Martin has farmed the place which consists of 80 acres, for the last eight years, usually putting in four acres of potatoes annually which is his major cash crop. He has worked in the mines off and on and plans on going back again this fall.

Dan Peterson still holds down his job as caretaker of the Omaha mine although it has been closed down for the last three years. At present he is working a drill at the Sycamore mine. They have a few cows and chickens to supply them with products for home use. Mrs. Aspholm is helping Mrs. Peterson with baking this afternoon as Mrs. Peterson is entertaining the Forward Society this evening.

I drove over to the town that was once known as Woodrow and found that it was abandoned with the exception of a few families. Mr. Dailum who runs the store and postoffice and Mr. McKay who works on the railroad were not at home. Nor was Mr. Zdrov who works on the road.

We had the pleasure of talking to a man today who was well versed in farm problems such as cooperative creameries, etc., and who made the remark that one trouble with the farmers as a class of people was that they will not stick together. Also it is his opinion that our newspapers are a detriment to the country. It would be hard to imagine our world as it is today, without the newspaper. We would all have the same feeling as though we were lost in a desert and had no means of communication with anyone to help us to escape. I think one who does not believe in newspapers should visit a modern office such as we have here in our little city and see how the news of the world is gathered for publication. The Dispatch welcomes all visitors and such a visit would be educational and enjoyable.

ROE CHASE "VISITING AROUND"

ROE CHASE of the Anoka Herald was a recent visitor in our lake region and has this to say in his paper this week:

Other folks on their vacations seem to like to visit strange lakes in which to fish, new pavilions in which to dance, public buildings, celebrated graveyards, buildings which have figured in history and such things.

We like to visit other sanctums. We like to see how the other scribes are prospering, how they are meeting the countless problems which are forever popping up. Recently this was possible.

At Elk River neighbor Dare was on the job turning out one of the best of our nearby exchanges. Saint Cloud has two vigorous daily papers, The Journal-Press and The Times. Alvah Eastman, veteran graduate of Anoka, edits the former and Fred Schilpin the latter. The Times has recently begun the reviewing of books on its editorial page and we like that feature immensely.

For years the Brainerd Dispatch has been one of the most interesting exchanges we've had. Scribe Wieland and his able associates produce a real newspaper with a real editorial page. That the city is prospering is evidenced by the extensive Elks home now in progress adjoining the present quarters. The welcome which they gave us was cordial.

At Aitkin we met for the first time B. L. Hollister and his associates. Somehow we always feel at home in Aitkin—the people there are so friendly. The Independent Age has been moved across the street and into fine quarters. Scribe Hamilton, now postmaster, was out of town on a vacation.

Scribe Van Rhea of Milaca is a genial chap and has a nifty shop where a fine paper is produced each week.

In Princeton evidently Scribess Grace Dunn had called it a day for the door was locked upon the sanctum whence has come for so many years that splendid weekly the Princeton Union.

In other towns the sanctums were equally cordial and we're going to visit some more of them just as soon as we get the opportunity.

OUR DAY OF REST

SUNDAY is a day of rest. On that day people who are employed, persons who are busy during the week in office, store and factory, men who work in the cities or who toil in the fields, lay aside the cares of their vocations and relax from the tension and the requirements of their work-day life.

But being a day of rest does not necessarily mean that one must stay in bed all day nor sit in the rocking chair on the front porch. The best kind of rest for mind and body, after one has spent six days among the same surroundings and engaged in the same line of work, is a change of scenery and a day of wholesome recreation.

Each person should be allowed to choose for himself the manner in which he shall spend his time on Sunday. The things that appeal to one person may not interest another. One would not expect the street car conductor to go for a trolley ride on his day off, and it would be equally absurd to ask the letter carrier to accompany you on a hike.

Undoubtedly the best way to start the day is by attending church. The man who begins his Sunday by going to church sets a good example to the members of his family and to others, and is not apt to go far wrong during the rest of the day.—DULUTH NEWS TRIBUNE.

MORE ON THE FRENCH FRANC

The French franc continues its gyrations bringing woe to many people, and stirring up all France and the world neighbors. One thing is certain. It takes taxes to pay debts. Oratory and gesticulations never paid any kind of a bill. The French franc will stop its intermittent plunges just as soon as the French nation takes a sane view of things.

All the ministries and cabinets and premiers in the world amount to nothing if the people do not accord support. It's a silly thing, that of French hooligans staging demonstrations against Americans in France. Does the average Frenchman expect America to assume its financial burdens?

As matters now stand, the French national treasury is about depleted and the Bank of France has almost reached the limit of its advances to the government.

About all we can suggest to the sovereign French nation is to borrow Andrew Mellon from the United States and let him straighten out their tangled finances. It can be done, for another American, we believe his name is Smith of Boston, spent two years in Austria and gave them a clean balance sheet, and in return refused decorations, cash reward and everything else tendered, being satisfied to remain enshrined in the memory of the Austrians as a square shooting American.

GETTING IN THE WAY OF THE FIRE TRUCK

FIREMEN voice a complaint and that is the morbid curiosity of Brainerd car owners who plump themselves direct on the battleground of a fire and get in the way of fire department work. Others give the truck a lot of work dodging them as they impede its rush to a fire.

And then, while a fire is being fought, numberless well-meaning but thoughtless citizens, anxious to observe a fire, get right in the way of the firemen.

An intelligent observer has said that a quarter of the work of a Brainerd fireman consists of detouring Brainerd cars and curiosity seekers. We have a good fire department. Let us not be thoughtless in the matter and unintentionally impede or hinder them in their work.

SOMEBODY HAS BEEN CARELESS

WE regret to call attention to the fact that the south side circus grounds look deplorable. Waste paper, hay, and other flotsam and jetsam of a circus passed away remain to litter up the site, and, what is worse, every vagrant wind grabs something and tosses it into neighbors' yards.

We believe that the cleaning up should have been done by the last party in possession and that is the circus, but as that has motored away, the city should attend to the housework.

IN politics people like a man who can be a good loser, as well as a modest winner.

SWEDISH ROYALTY
ARDENT MOVIE FANS

Los Angeles, July 23.—(UP)—Sweden's royal representatives, the Crown Prince Gustavus Adolphus and the Crown Princess Louise, are ardent movie fans. They showed that today when they were carried on a tour to the film plants and had a real close-up on how the movies are made. The royal pair showed particular interest in the activities of the Swedish screen players imported to Hollywood recently by one of the big producing companies.

Studios had their leading players set and the cameras were grinding busily when the heir to the Swedish throne and his party made their visits.

A number of the big stars posed with the prince and princess for "stills" and at one of the studios the royal pair posed before a movie camera.

CLAIMS CALL TO ARMS SOUNDED
IN OLD MEXICO

Nogales, Ariz., July 23.—(UP)—The Herald received an unconfirmed rumor from Mexico that the secretary of war had issued a call to arms of all troops in the Mexican republic.

Troops according to report were to be ready "for instant action on Aug. 1," when a reported order to close all Catholic churches is to take effect.

NEW BRIDGE AT BELOIT, WIS.

Washington, July 23.—(UP)—The war department today approved Beloit, Wis., plans for a bridge across the river at that city.

LAMONT IS ORDERED RELEASED

Cleveland, O., July 23.—(UP)—Warren Jimmie Lamont, arrested here in connection with the Don R. Mellett murder probe soon after Pittsburgh authorities took "George the Greek" Pallas, was released today by Police Captain Emmett Potts. Lamont's alibi was said to be bullet proof by the officer.

CONDUCTOR STEPS
IN PATH OF TRAIN,
INSTANTLY KILLED

Red Wing, Minn., July 23.—(UP)—Frank Higbee, 30, of Milwaukee, a railroad conductor, was killed here today when he was struck by the Olympian, crack passenger train of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad.

Higbee was conductor of a construction train which took a siding to let the flyer pass. Higbee, who was riding on the engine, stepped off directly in the path of the Olympian, which was west bound to St. Paul.

Higbee's body was hurled 30 feet by the locomotive and every bone in his body was broken.

BASEBALL
SQUIBS

Old Jack Quinn continues to fool the best of them.

Indianapolis has sent Pitcher Alfred Reynolds to the Decatur club of the Three-I league.

The Detroit club sent Pitcher Clyde Barfoot to the Mason club of the Pacific Coast league.

Cincinnati fans are inclined to hand Manager Jack Hendricks the full limit of credit for boosting the Reds.

Victor A. Hanson, 27, of Syracuse has been elected captain of the 1927 baseball team of Syracuse university.

The Yankee stadium, in New York city, is the largest of the major league ball parks, with a seating capacity of 65,000.

George W. Bradley, aged fifty, who pitched the first no-hit, no-run game in the National league, is now a policeman in Philadelphia, Pa.

Bucky Harris, youngest and most successful of all major league managers, was discarded by six clubs in nine years before he made good.

Fred Marberry is considered the "champion relief pitcher" of the country. Last year he worked in fifty-five games for the Washington team.

Air-tight ball was played back in the eighties. October 1, 1884, the ten clubs comprising the American association circuit scored only 28 runs in that day's play.

Two pitchers of the St. Paul American association club have been sold. Ad Holtzhauser was sent to Dallas of the Texas league and Charles Convent was released to Binghamton, N. Y.

Cadet Arthur L. Cobb, of Greenwood, S. C., and Cadet Joseph N. Gilbreth, of Bethesda, Md., were elected captains of the army baseball and track teams, respectively.

Cincinnati evidently has a hitter as well as a pitcher in Lucas, former Boston National player, whom Manager Bancroft of the Braves once tried to convert into a second base man because of his hitting.

Finality of expression is one of those literary qualities instantly recognizable in the event, and not in the least susceptible of analysis. Patterns of progress

An American home—its bathtub, breakfast foods, furnace—set down in the heart of Europe would be unmistakably an American home. An American man, the cut of his coat, the tie of his tie, the comb of his hair—walking the streets of Europe is in all his obvious tastes an American.

Advertisements stamp American homes and owners of homes with a kind of national pattern. They create desire for the same kind of things; make particular people know and want the most advanced of things. Homes—what to put in homes. People—how to dress, nourish, entertain the people. Offices—how to equip and operate offices. They set America right about radios and talcums—tell businessmen, housewives, government officials how to brush their teeth!

ROE CHASE "VISITING AROUND"

ROE CHASE of the Anoka Herald was a recent visitor in our lake region and has this to say in his paper this week:

Other folks on their vacations seem to like to visit strange lakes in which to fish, new pavilions in which to dance, public buildings, celebrated graveyards, buildings which have figured in history and such things.

We like to visit other sanctums. We like to see how the other scribes are prospering, how they are meeting the countless problems which are forever popping up. Recently this was possible.

At Elk River neighbor Dare was on the job turning out one of the best of our nearby exchanges. Saint Cloud has two vigorous daily papers, The Journal-Press and The Times. Alvah Eastman, veteran graduate of Anoka, edits the former and Fred Schilpin the latter. The Times has recently begun the reviewing of books on its editorial page and we like that feature immensely.

For years the Brainerd Dispatch has been one of the most interesting exchanges we've had. Scribe Wieland and his able associates produce a real newspaper with a real editorial page. That the city is prospering is evidenced by the extensive Elks home now in progress adjoining the present quarters. The welcome which they gave us was cordial.

At Aitkin we met for the first time B. L. Hollister and his associates. Somehow we always feel at home in Aitkin—the people there are so friendly. The Independent Age has been moved across the street and into fine quarters. Scribe Hamilton, now postmaster, was out of town on a vacation.

Scribe Van Rhea of Milaca is a genial chap and has a nifty shop where a fine paper is produced each week.

In Princeton evidently Scribess Grace Dunn had called it a day for the door was locked upon the sanctum whence has come for so many years that splendid weekly the Princeton Union.

In other towns the sanctums were equally cordial and we're going to visit some more of them just as soon as we get the opportunity.

OUR DAY OF REST

SUNDAY is a day of rest. On that day people who are employed, persons who are busy during the week in office, store and factory, men who work in the cities or who toil in the fields, lay aside the cares of their vocations and relax from the tension and the requirements of their work-day life.

But being a day of rest does not necessarily mean that one must stay in bed all day nor sit in the rocking chair on the front porch. The best kind of rest for mind and body, after one has spent six days among the same surroundings and engaged in the same line of work, is a change of scenery and a day of wholesome recreation.

Each person should be allowed to choose for himself the manner in which he shall spend his time on Sunday. The things that appeal to one person may not interest another. One would not expect the street car conductor to go for a trolley ride on his day off, and it would be equally absurd to ask the letter carrier to accompany you on a hike.

Undoubtedly the best way to start the day is by attending church. The man who begins his Sunday by going to church sets a good example to the members of his family and to others, and is not apt to go far wrong during the rest of the day.—DULUTH NEWS TRIBUNE.

NORTHWEST'S OWN FARMER CONFERENCE

FOLLOWS CLOSELY AT ST. PAUL, A REFLECTION OF DES MOINES MEETING

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN MEET ON CALL OF STATE FARM BUREAU

St. Paul, Minn., July 23.—(UP)—Following closely and intended to be a reflection of the Des Moines meeting, the northwest's own agricultural conference opened here today. Representative farmers and business men, declared by leaders to be "fighting mad" because of the failure of congress to enact relief legislation, met on call of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation to plan the fight for equality with industry.

The conference started with an optimistic feeling as a result of the statement of Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, that the corn belt's farm bill has an excellent chance of passage.

McNary believes the principles of the measure should not be tampered with, but favors rewriting or eliminating certain features.

He said he had lost hope of help from the west.

"In the south, rather than the east, lies the hope of those who are earnestly seeking to gain the farmer his due," McNary said. "Under the leadership of Senator Simmons of North Carolina, the south should be swung into line."

"McNary was unable to remain for the northwest's parley.

Among those responsible for the northwest conference which will end Saturday are Frank W. Murphy, of Wheaton, leader in middle western agricultural affairs; J.F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation; James Manahan, president of the Farmers' Union Terminal Exchange; J. W. Brinton of the Minnesota Wheat Growers' Co-operative Association; Thomas E. Cashman, secretary of the Farm Bureau Federation; and George C. Lambert, of the Equity Co-operative Exchange.

Just what the conference intends to do is indefinite, but it is certain that it will give its support to a farm relief program along the lines of the McNary-Haugen bill.

Fish Not Brain Food

Another old wives' tale in cookery is that fish is a brain food. Fish is the same kind of food as meat, which is protein and fat. All food that nourishes the body nourishes the brain, because all of the organs draw their food supply from the same source, the blood stream. Fish is no more a brain food than milk is a heart food, or eggs an eye food, or carrots a foot food.—Hygeia Magazine.

HARMONY IN G. O. P. STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

SHARP TILTS PREVIOUSLY BETWEEN CONGRESSIONAL AND STATE CANDIDATES

FORMER SUCCESSFUL IN BLOCKING STATE CANDIDATE MOVES

St. Paul, Minn., July 23.—(UP)—Harmony prevailed today in the Minnesota republican state central committee after sharp tilts between congressional and state candidates in the organization meeting yesterday.

Congressional candidates in the verbal engagements were successful in blocking moves that would have given the state candidates domination of the organization and defeated proposals to allow the state committee to name county committees and Governor Theodore Christianson to select the executives in active charge of the campaign.

Gregory P. Gentling, of Rochester, was elected director of publicity. This was a victory for the congressional office seekers who declared that appointed publicity directors had been unfair to them in the past. Gentling was named on motion of Congressman A. J. Furlow of the first district.

A resolution offered by E. E. Howard, congressional candidate in the seventh district, and C. G. Selvig, candidate in the ninth district, was adopted, endorsing farm relief efforts of republican representatives from Minnesota.

Because the decision increasing each candidate's representatives on the committee from two to four caught some candidates unprepared, the conference adjourned to August 8 without selecting the committee. When it meets then, the committee will be named. Women will be given equal representation.

FOLLOWS CLOSELY AT ST. PAUL, A REFLECTION OF DES MOINES MEETING

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN
MEET ON CALL OF STATE
FARM BUREAU

St. Paul, Minn., July 23.—(UP)—Following closely and intended to be a reflection of the Des Moines meetings, the northwest's own agricultural conference opened here today.

Representative farmers and business men, declared by leaders to be "fighting mad" because of the failure of congress to enact relief legislation, met on call of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation to plan the fight for equality with industry.

The conference started with an optimistic feeling as a result of the statement of Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, that the corn belt's farm bill has an excellent chance of passage.

McNary believes the principles of the measure should not be tampered with, but favors rewriting or eliminating certain features.

He said he had lost hope of help from the west.

"In the south, rather than the east, lies the hope of those who are earnestly seeking to gain the farmer his due," McNary said. "Under the leadership of Senator Simmons of North Carolina, the south should be swung into line."

"McNary was unable to remain for the northwest's parley.

Among those responsible for the northwest conference which will end Saturday are Frank W. Murphy, of Wheaton, leader in middle western agricultural affairs; J. F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation; James Manahan, president of the Farmers' Union Terminal Exchange; J. W. Brinton of the Minnesota Wheat Growers' Co-operative Association; Thomas E. Cashman, secretary of the Farm Bureau Federation; and George C. Lambert, of the Equity Co-operative Exchange.

Just what the conference intends to do is indefinite, but it is certain that it will give its support to a farm relief program along the lines of the McNary-Haugen bill.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST LOOMS UP IN GOLF

MAKES STRONG BID IN WHITE BEAR TOURNERY

DEMPSEY-TUNNEY MATCH HELD UP

2 OF 8 PACIFIC N. W. ENTRANTS REMAIN IN THE COMPETITION

DOLP MEETS HISERT, STEIN IS MATCHED WITH KNEPPER

White Bear Yacht Club, White Bear, Minn., July 23.—(UP)—The Pacific northwest is making a strong bid for supremacy in the Western Amateur Golf tournament.

Two of the eight Pacific northwest entries remained in the competition today and were to engage two Chicagoans in the semi-finals. Frank Dolp, of Portland, was to meet Kenneth Hisert, of Chicago, Big Ten champion. Bronson E. Stein, of Seattle, was matched with Rudy Knepper, of Chicago, former Iowa state champion.

This is the first year the Pacific northwest has entered the Western. The coast players ache to add the amateur title to their victory over the western golfers in team play and have a strong argument for having the 1927 tournament out their way. Results of yesterday's quarter-finals:

Hisert won from Jimmy Ward, of Kansas City, three and two.

Stein defeated Arthur Terra, of Minneapolis, four and three.

Knepper eliminated Bill Medart, of St. Louis, five and four.

Dolp was victorious over Chuck Hunter, of Tacoma, by default.

With all the completed matches resulting in decisive victories, Hisert and Ward furnished the most interesting play. Ward went out in 34 and was one up at the turn, but Hisert braced during the second nine, won three holes and was two up. Hisert went out in 34 in the afternoon, picking up another hole, and maintained this advantage in the last nine.

Stein was given a stubborn, courageous fight by Terra, the 18-year-old school boy who learned the game while caddying. Terra was weak in his iron play, and lost the match, but won the gallery by his stout-hearted battle.

Medart was two up at the end of nine holes, but could not continue the pace against Knepper's par golf and the former Iowa champion sailed through to an easy victory.

Five down on the tenth hole, Hunter conceded defeat to Dolp because of a sore hand.

ALL NATIONS TEAM WINS MOUND DUEL AT SUPERIOR, 1-0

TEAM TO PLAY AT BRAINERD SUNDAY, MEETING N. P. CITY TEAM

VILLA, FILIPINO LEFT FIELDER, RUNS BASES FINE TO SCORE LONE TALLY

The Kansas City All Nations baseball team, which comes to Brainerd on Sunday for a game with the local N. P. city team, won a brilliant mound duel from the crack Superior, Wis., nine on Wednesday evening, the score being 1 to 0, with Weigle, the Duch Duster of the All Nations team, and Weirman, of Superior, engaging in one of the best hurling contests seen at the head of the lakes.

Largely through the splendid base running of Villa, Filipino left fielder of the All Nations team, the tourists scored their lone tally in the seventh inning. By fast sprinting, Villa stretched his line drive to the right field wall into a double, and scored on Smith's long double a minute later. Superior nearly won the game in the final round, when they loaded the bags, but failed to make the grade.

The All Nations team won the game last Sunday from Duluth, 6 to 1, after dropping the Saturday afternoon game to the same team, 5-4. Tracy, former Crosby pitcher, will be on the mound for Brainerd Sunday. Tracy is back from the Dakotas, where he has had a successful summer pitching. The rest of the local line-up will be the same as in former games.

The 16 low men qualify in the championship flight. Robert Lestwujde, 15 year old Sheboygan lad, won the junior championship with an 83.

TEX RICKARD TO MAKE CERTAIN OF LEGAL STATUS

TO HAVE PASSED ON BY COUNSEL HIS CONTRACT WITH DEMPSEY

COLISEUM CLUB'S OLD AGREEMENT WITH DEMPSEY A DISTURBING FACTOR

By EDWARD C. DERR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, July 23.—Tex Rickard announced today that all plans for a Dempsey-Tunney match for the world's heavyweight championship will be held up until he makes certain of the legal status of the contract he has with Jack Dempsey.

Wednesday evening Rickard announced that Dempsey would meet Gene Tunney in a title bout in Chicago either on September 11 or September 18. He was inclined to smile at suggestions that he would be unable to stage the fight because of a previous contract Dempsey signed with the Chicago Coliseum club.

The Dempsey-Tunney fight was certain, Rickard said then, and most everyone in town placed their confidence in Rickard. But last night Rickard was given some fresh information on the matter of the old contract Dempsey had with the Coliseum club and he considered this information so important that he announced this morning nothing further would be done regarding the Dempsey-Tunney fight until he investigates this information with the aid of lawyers.

The information Rickard obtained last night was something like this: Late in 1925 Dempsey signed a contract with Floyd Fitzsimmons, the Michigan City promoter, wherein Dempsey agreed to meet Harry Wills, the negro contender. Fitzsimmons backed out of his plans to stage this fight and agreed to sell his contract to B. C. Clements, president of the Coliseum club, for $150,000, which amount was to be divided between Dempsey and himself.

Clements then went to California, interviewed Dempsey and obtained Dempsey's signature on an option—paying the champion just $10 for his signature. Dempsey, it is understood, signed this option in the belief he was to get half of the $150,000. Clements had agreed to pay Fitzsimmons.

Later Fitzsimmons attempted to collect the $150,000 from Clements but his sight draft was refused payment. Neither he nor Dempsey have collected a cent from Clements and it is understood they have nothing on paper to show that Clements owes them anything.

Until last night Rickard had gone ahead with his plans for a Dempsey-Tunney fight in the belief that Clements' contract with Dempsey had been voided through Clements' failure to pay Fitzsimmons, but it now appears neither Fitzsimmons nor Dempsey can prove they have any money due them. This would make Clements' $10 option on Dempsey's services a binding contract and under this option Dempsey must meet Harry Wills in Chicago before he takes on Tunney.

The option calls upon Clements to pay Dempsey $300,000 on August 5 and another $500,000 on the day of the fight. It is understood Clements has sufficient financial backing to meet these payments and stage the Dempsey-Wills fight; but even if he failed he can go into court with his $10 option and prevent Dempsey meeting Tunney. This much he has promised to do.

All these complicated transactions plainly have Rickard very much worried. It would be surprising indeed if an almost unknown Chicago man successfully defeated Rickard, a veteran promoter, in the matter of negotiating contracts, but it may be true.

CHICAGO COLISEUM CLUB STATEMENT

By FRANK C. DERR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, July 23.—The Chicago Coliseum club today announced that Jack Dempsey will defend his world's heavyweight championship in a bout with Harry Wills, negro contender, in Chicago, "some time between September 16 and September 20."

The announcement was made by B. C. Clements, president of the Coliseum club, who insists that his contract with Dempsey, signed before the champion came to terms with Tex Rickard for a bout with Tunney, is perfectly legal and his plans for a Dempsey-Wills fight are certain to go through.

"Paddy Mullins, manager of Wills, is leaving for Chicago immediately to prepare training quarters for the negro challenger," Clements told the United Press. "Wills himself will leave New York Monday, reaching Chicago Tuesday. Dempsey will arrive before August 1."

The match probably will be held in Soldiers' Field, Chicago's municipal stadium, Clements said.

Under the terms of Clements' agreement with Dempsey, the champion is to be paid $300,000 August 5 to make the contract binding and another $500,000 on the day of the fight. These payments, Clements said, will be forthcoming on scheduled time, which will make it necessary for Dempsey to enter the ring. Wills is to receive $300,000 as a guarantee of his end of the gate receipts, which are expected to total approximately $2,000,000.

Rickard, veteran New York fight promoter, who Wednesday announced a Dempsey-Tunney match for Chicago about the same dates characterized the Coliseum club's announcement as a "lot of bunk."

"I have been hearing about their plans for some time," Rickard commented, "but there is nothing to them."

Rickard said he probably would announce complete plans for his Dempsey-Tunney match some time this afternoon.

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 23.—Jack Dempsey has no concern about the news that B. C. Clements, president of the Coliseum club in Chicago, claims a valid and binding contract with him to fight Harry Wills.

"Clements has no more contract for services than a fish has feathers," exclaimed Jack. "Clements has not a contract of mine, because I still have the one I signed just as I told the United Press yesterday. Clements came out to Los Angeles with Floyd Fitzsimmons last spring with big talk and no money."

"Clements is a false alarm who could not put the fight over himself because it was too big for him. He does not want me to fight Wills or anyone for him because he knows he can't handle it. He tried. He figures that if he talks fast enough he can make Rickard cut him in on the purse. Unless Tex has gone crazy since I last saw him he will tell Clements to jump in the lake," Dempsey concluded.

The champion put emphasis in his statements that Clements has no contract.

BATTLE OF PROMOTERS HINGES ON CONTRACTS

Chicago, July 23.—The battle of promoters for the privilege of handling Jack Dempsey's next appearance in the prize ring today settled down to the process of deciding which of the contracts Dempsey signed is legal.

Battle lines were definitely drawn today when B. C. Clements, president of the Chicago Coliseum club, came out with a flat announcement that Dempsey would meet Harry Wills, the negro giant, in a Chicago arena some time "between September 16 and September 20; Clements claims he has a contract with Dempsey to assure this match and that Wills is preparing to come here immediately to train for the bout.

Meanwhile Tex Rickard, the New York promoter, has not backed down from his statement that he will stage a match between Dempsey and Gene Tunney, the leading white contender in Chicago, "either September 11 or September 18."

Rickard claims Clements' contract with Dempsey is void and that he (Rickard) holds the only legal right to Dempsey's services.

Rickard, however, is sufficiently worried about Clements' claims to hold up further plans for the Dempsey-Tunney bout. He has decided to make certain of his legal standing with Dempsey before he spends any more time or money on the affair.

Boxing fans in Chicago, eager to have Dempsey defend his title here and not very particular who his opponent is, are anxiously awaiting definite settlement of the case, so they can buy their tickets from the successful promoter.

Watching the Scoreboard

The Yankees trimmed the White Sox 13 to 10 yesterday under a broiling sun, making 13 of the 23 runs and 17 of the 28 hits. Gebrigs' record homer in the first with two on base, hit the fence behind the flag pole, beating Babe Ruth's score board swat.

The Giants took the first game of the series from the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday, despite a pair of homers lifted from Barnes by Bell and Southworth, 5 to 3.

With a runaway of 11 runs in the second when two homers by High of the Boston Braves gave them a break, the Cincinnati Reds swamped the Braves 13 to 3.

The N. E. team increased its lead for the second half championship by winning from the lowly Seals again by a top-heavy score, this time by 13 to 1. Jarbo pitched for the winners, and kept the three hits made off his delivery from registering much damage. One of them was a double by Olson, who didn't make the hit count, but later scored his team's only score after he had been hit by a pitched ball.

Jarbo struck out 10 Seals in the five innings of the game. The game was loosely played, the losers making 10 errors to aid their downfall.

The Seals are hard put to it for a pitcher to take Stevens' place. Stevens is visiting his home in Connecticut, and doing some pitching there. His place is still vacant, and the Seals do not seem to be able to line up a reliable hurler.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST LOOMS UP IN GOLF

MAKES STRONG BID IN WHITE BEAR TOURNEY

2 OF 8 PACIFIC N. W. ENTRANTS REMAIN IN THE COMPETITION

DOLP MEETS HISERT, STEIN IS MATCHED WITH KNEPPER

White Bear Yacht Club, White Bear, Minn., July 23.—(UP)—The Pacific northwest is making a strong bid for supremacy in the Western Amateur Golf tournament.

Two of the eight Pacific northwest entries remained in the competition today and were to engage two Chicagoans in the semi-finals. Frank Dolp, of Portland, was to meet Kenneth Hisert, of Chicago, Big Ten champion. Bronson E. Stein, of Seattle, was matched with Rudy Knepper, of Chicago, former Iowa state champion.

This is the first year the Pacific northwest has entered the Western. The coast players ache to add the amateur title to their victory over the western golfers in team play and have a strong argument for having the 1927 tournament out their way. Results of yesterday's quarter-finals:

Hisert won from Jimmy Ward, of Kansas City, three and two.

Stein defeated Arthur Terra, of Minneapolis, four and three.

Knepper eliminated Bill Medart, of St. Louis, five and four.

Dolp was victorious over Chuck Hunter, of Tacoma, by default.

With all the completed matches resulting in decisive victories, Hisert and Ward furnished the most interesting play. Ward went out in 34 and was one up at the turn, but Hisert braced during the second nine, won three holes and was two up. Hisert went out in 34 in the afternoon, picking up another hole, and maintained this advantage in the last nine.

Stein was given a stubborn, courageous fight by Terra, the 18-year-old school boy who learned the game while caddying. Terra was weak in his iron play, and lost the match, but won the gallery by his stout-hearted battle.

Medart was two up at the end of nine holes, but could not continue the pace against Knepper's par golf and the former Iowa champion sailed through to an easy victory.

Five down on the tenth hole, Hunter conceded defeat to Dolp because of a sore hand.

VILLA, FILIPINO LEFT FIELDER, RUNS BASES FINE TO SCORE LONE TALLY

The Kansas City All Nations baseball team, which comes to Brainerd on Sunday for a game with the local N. P. city team, won a brilliant mound duel from the crack Superior, Wis., nine on Wednesday evening, the score being 1 to 0, with Weigle, the Duch Duster of the All Nations team, and Weirman, of Superior, engaging in one of the best hurling contests seen at the head of the lakes.

Largely through the splendid base running of Villa, Filipino left fielder of the All Nations team, the tourists scored their lone tally in the seventh inning. By fast sprinting, Villa stretched his line drive to the right field wall into a double, and scored on Smith's long double a minute later. Superior nearly won the game in the final round, when they loaded the bags, but failed to make the grade.

The All Nations team won the game last Sunday from Duluth, 6 to 1, after dropping the Saturday afternoon game to the same team, 5-4.

Tracy, former Crosby pitcher, will be on the mound for Brainerd Sunday. Tracy is back from the Dakotas, where he has had a successful summer pitching. The rest of the local line-up will be the same as in former games.

TEX RICKARD TO MAKE CERTAIN OF LEGAL STATUS

TO HAVE PASSED ON BY COUNSEL HIS CONTRACT WITH DEMPSEY

COLISEUM CLUB'S OLD AGREEMENT WITH DEMPSEY A DIS-TURBING FACTOR

By EDWARD C. DERR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, July 23.—Tex Rickard announced today that all plans for a Dempsey-Tunney match for the world's heavyweight championship will be held up until he makes certain of the legal status of the contract he has with Jack Dempsey.

Wednesday evening Rickard announced that Dempsey would meet Gene Tunney in a title bout in Chicago either on September 11 or September 18. He was inclined to smile at suggestions that he would be unable to stage the fight because of a previous contract Dempsey signed with the Chicago Coliseum club.

The Dempsey-Tunney fight was certain, Rickard said then, and most everyone in town placed their confidence in Rickard.

But last night Rickard was given some fresh information on the matter of the old contract Dempsey had with the Coliseum club and he considered this information so important that he announced this morning nothing further would be done regarding the Dempsey-Tunney fight until he investigates this information with the aid of lawyers.

The information Rickard obtained last night was something like this: Late in 1925 Dempsey signed a contract with Floyd Fitzsimmons, the Michigan City promoter, wherein Dempsey agreed to meet Harry Wills, the negro contender.

Backed out of his plans to stage this fight and agreed to sell his contract to B. C. Clements, president of the Coliseum club, for $150,000, which amount was to be divided between Dempsey and himself.

Clements then went to California, interviewed Dempsey and obtained Dempsey's signature on an option—paying the champion just $10 for his signature. Dempsey, it is understood, signed this option in the belief he was to get half of the $150,000 Clements had agreed to pay Fitzsimmons.

Later Fitzsimmons attempted to collect the $150,000 from Clements but his sight draft was refused payment. Neither he nor Dempsey have collected a cent from Clements and it is understood they have nothing on paper to show that Clements owes them anything.

Until last night Rickard had gone ahead with his plans for a Dempsey-Tunney fight in the belief that Clements' contract with Dempsey had been voided through Clements' failure to pay Fitzsimmons, but it now appears neither Fitzsimmons nor Dempsey can prove they have any money due them. This would make Clements' $10 option on Dempsey's services a binding contract and under this option Dempsey must meet Harry Wills in Chicago before he takes on Tunney.

The option calls upon Clements to pay Dempsey $300,000 on August 5 and another $500,000 on the day of the fight. It is understood Clements has sufficient financial backing to meet these payments and stage the Dempsey-Wills fight; but even if he failed he can go into court with his $10 option and prevent Dempsey meeting Tunney. This much he has promised to do.

All these complicated transactions plainly have Rickard very much worried. It would be surprising indeed if an almost unknown Chicago man successfully defeated Rickard, a veteran promoter, in the matter of negotiating contracts, but it may be true.

CHICAGO COLISEUM CLUB STATEMENT

By FRANK C. DERR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, July 23.—The Chicago Coliseum club today announced that Jack Dempsey will defend his world's heavyweight championship in a bout with Harry Wills, negro contender, in Chicago, "some time between September 16 and September 20."

The announcement was made by B. C. Clements, president of the Coliseum club, who insists that his contract with Dempsey, signed before the champion came to terms with Tex Rickard for a bout with Tunney, is perfectly legal and his plans for a Dempsey-Wills fight are certain to go through.

"Paddy Mullins, manager of Wills, is leaving for Chicago immediately to prepare training quarters for the negro challenger," Clements told the United Press. "Wills himself will leave New York Monday, reaching Chicago Tuesday. Dempsey will arrive before August 1."

The match probably will be held in Soldiers' Field, Chicago's municipal stadium, Clements said.

Under the terms of Clements' agreement with Dempsey, the champion is to be paid $300,000 August 5 to make the contract binding and another $500,000 on the day of the fight. These payments, Clements said, will be forthcoming on scheduled time, which will make it necessary for Dempsey to enter the ring.

Wills is to receive $300,000 as a guarantee of his end of the gate receipts, which are expected to total approximately $2,000,000.

Rickard, veteran New York fight promoter, who Wednesday announced a Dempsey-Tunney match for Chicago about the same dates characterized the Coliseum club's announcement as a "lot of bunk."

"I have been hearing about their plans for some time," Rickard commented, "but there is nothing to them."

Rickard said he probably would announce complete plans for his Dempsey-Tunney match some time this afternoon.

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 23.—Jack Dempsey has no concern about the news that B. C. Clements, president of the Coliseum club in Chicago, claims a valid and binding contract with him to fight Harry Wills.

"Clements has no more contract for services than a fish has feathers," exclaimed Jack. "Clements has not a contract of mine, because I still have the one I signed just as I told the United Press yesterday. Clements came out to Los Angeles with Floyd Fitzsimmons last spring with big talk and no money."

"Clements is a false alarm who could not put the fight over himself because it was too big for him. He does not want me to fight Wills or anyone for him because he knows he can't handle it. He tried. He figures that if he talks fast enough he can make Rickard cut him in on the purse. Unless Tex has gone crazy since I last saw him he will tell Clements to jump in the lake," Dempsey concluded.

The champion put emphasis in his statements that Clements has no contract.

BATTLE OF PROMOTERS HINGES ON CONTRACTS

Chicago, July 23.—The battle of promoters for the privilege of handling Jack Dempsey's next appearance in the prize ring today settled down to the process of deciding which of the contracts Dempsey signed is legal.

Battle lines were definitely drawn today when B. C. Clements, president of the Chicago Coliseum club, came out with a flat announcement that Dempsey would meet Harry Wills, the negro giant, in a Chicago arena some time "between September 16 and September 20; Clements claims he has a contract with Dempsey to assure this match and that Wills is preparing to come here immediately to train for the bout.

Meanwhile Tex Rickard, the New York promoter, has not backed down from his statement that he will stage a match between Dempsey and Gene Tunney, the leading white contender in Chicago, "after September 11 or September 18."

Rickard claims Clements' contract with Dempsey is void and that he (Rickard) holds the only legal right to Dempsey's services.

Rickard, however, is sufficiently worried about Clements' claims to hold up further plans for the Dempsey-Tunney bout. He has decided to make certain of his legal standing with Dempsey before he spends any more time or money on the affair.

Boxing fans in Chicago, eager to have Dempsey defend his title here and not very particular who his opponent is, are anxiously awaiting definite settlement of the case, so they can buy their tickets from the successful promoter.

28 PEAT FIRES IN THE DISTRICT

All Forestry Men in District Fighting Fires in Range 32 North of Motley and Staples

RAIN HELPS EXTINCTION

Number of Peat Fires This Year Greatly Surpass Number Last Year, Mr. Rhodes Reports

More than 28 peat fires in the territory patrolled by the forestry department men stationed here, are reported today by E. H. Rhodes, district forest ranger, but the rain will help a little in extinguishing them.

Five patrolmen with crews are fighting the fires which are most common in Townships, 136, 137, 138, Range 32 of Cass county, north of Motley and Staples and south of Pihlbrook.

The peat fire is the most persistent fire forestry men have to cope with. Sometimes the fire will continue to smolder for months and they have even been known to have burned for an entire winter. The crews are digging ditches around the areas, with the hope that with rain, the ditches will fill and the fire will be checked. Three pump engines are also working, pumping water on the fires.

The number of peat fires in the district this year is in excess of the number last year, Mr. Rhodes stated.

It is one of the best pictures we have seen Mr. Sills in since his famous "Sea Hawk," and he gives a wonderful characterization in the role of Nicki Riccoboni, proprietor of a little puppet theatre located in New York's lower East Side.

Buck Jones Rides Bucking Taxicab

Buck Jones in a bucking taxicab racing through a crowded street, is one of the amusing sights in "The Fighting Buckaroo." The buckaroo is racing from an ocean liner's gangplank to Arizona for a girl and a gold mine. He gets them but he has a race or a fight at every turn of the reel. This Fox Films' picture will come to the Lyceum Theatre on Saturday.

LIONS CONTINUE GLAD HANDING

Campaign of Welcoming Tourists Which Started June 28 is Proving Successful

111 TOURISTS INTERVIEWED

Lions Grievance Committee Have Only 11 Complaints on Treatment and Service

In their glad handing tourist campaign which started on June 28, Lion members have interviewed to date 111 tourists, given out pamphlets, and extended them a cordial invitation to the lake region. It is a work which has been appreciated greatly by the tourists and has been the means of creating a kind feeling between tourists and the citizens of Brainerd.

The city council has taken cognizance of the work and are planning on printing welcome cards for policemen to hand out to tourists.

In the campaign a Lion has been on duty with the exception of one day, every day since June 28, and Lions have worked a total of 89 hours, and 30 minutes since glad handing started. A total of 111 pieces of Lions Welcome sheets have been distributed. Tourists have been welcomed from 28 different states, the District of Columbia and four provinces in Canada.

The Lions also watch for complaints on treatment and service, given tourists while in the city and the Lions grievance committee now have 11 such complaints for diplomatic handling.

The Lion glad hander is always equipped with Crow Wing county maps and gives out much information during his time on duty.

The results obtained are much greater than was anticipated when the undertaking was first planned.

Grayness of Engineers

When driving a locomotive the engineer and the fireman have many more thrills than the public knows of. Motor cars, pedestrians, broken rails and stalled trains provide so much excitement for those in charge of the engine that investigation shows most men of the throttle go gray between the ages of thirty and forty.

A dear old Quaker lady was asked, says the Lyons News, what she used to make her complexion so lovely and her whole being so bright and attractive. She answered: "I use for the lips, truth; for the voice, prayer; for the eyes, pity; for the hands, charity; for the figure, uprightness, and for the heart, love."—Boston Transcript.

KANSAS DAY AT ROTARY CLUB

Fred Durland, of Junction City, Kan., Presides at the Last Meeting of the Club

IN INTERESTING TALK

Dr. G. I. Badeaux Heard in Baritone Solos Greeted With Loud Applause, Gives Encore

It was "Kansas Day" at the Rotary club meeting and President William V. Turcotte turned the gavel over to Fred Durland of Junction City, Kansas. Mr. Durland explained why another Kansan, Fred Boone, was missing. The latter had taken a sick person to Rochester.

Mr. Durland said he enjoyed meeting with Brainerd Rotary. He had been coming to this lake country for the past 15 years, met a few merchants, knew a few people, but it wasn't until he visited Brainerd Rotary that he got acquainted with many from this section. He praised Brainerd club as being a fine lot of fellows, and he really enjoyed bringing his friends to the meeting.

Dr. G. I. Badeaux sang a group of baritone solos and responded to an encore. He was in splendid voice and made a very good impression. His songs included "The Road to Mandalay" and "Rolling Down to Rio."

Mr. Durland introduced J. B. Fitch, an instructor in the Kansas Agricultural College. Rotarian Fitch told of the problems of Kansas, of how the state is trying to get away from the one-crop wheat plan and enter diversified farming. Mr. Fitch has been in Minnesota at various times buying dairy cattle for Kansas people.

Kansas wheat crop this year will run to 150,000,000 bushels. Such a crop sometimes chokes transportation facilities.

"We look to Minnesota as a leader in many things," said Mr. Fitch. "The plan of the Twin City Milk Producers Association has been copied in Kansas."

He praised the work of the Land O'Lakes creameries and said they were selling sweet cream butter in 11 foreign countries. That business was done on a quality basis.

President Turcotte announced additional committees for the Rotary-Lions ball game:

Peanut sellers—George D. LaBar, E. O. Webb, Dr. R. A. Belsa, Pop vendors—Fred W. Wieland, E. F. Gage, Carl Zapffe.

Announcer—A. C. Ebert.

Fire Started in Kitchen, Spreading to Other Rooms Doing Considerable Damage

Fifty gallons of chemicals were used to put out the fire that swept the house of Eugene White, L street two blocks east of Mill street at 9:30 o'clock last evening, doing considerable damage.

No hydrant was near the house so it was necessary to call out the old fire truck for additional chemicals. The fire started in the kitchen and spread to the other rooms in the house. It lasted about an hour. The actual cause of the fire is unknown as there was no one at the house at the time.

A fire broke out at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning on the roof of the residence of Mrs. D. L. Emery, 1602 Laurel street. Damage was placed at $10. The fire was caused by sparks from the chimney. This was the fifth call the new fire truck has been called out on.

L. M. Jones, Oklahoma, secretary of the Employee's Benefit Committee of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., writes to Julius Viken, of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. here asking for particulars regarding an ideal place to spend his vacation in these parts next month.

Mr. Jones states that he does not want a white collar resort but wants to rough it out in the open by some nice lake in a comfortable cottage. He also prefers a place where there are no mosquitoes, flies or reptiles. He and his family intend to spend two weeks in these parts fishing and camping.

Mr. Viken replied that he could furnish him with an ideal location that would suit his requirements.

FEIGH MINE TO BE SHIPPER SOON

Crosby, Minn., July 23. — The Feigh Mine, at Crosby, which has been shut down since 1920, is being put on the list of mines shipping ore. This is a Northwestern Improvement Co. property and Carl Zapffe, of Brainerd is manager, while W. J. Cameron is local superintendent. A substantial tonnage will be shipped from the mine until the close of navigation. The news that a mine shut-down for six years, has been re-opened, is of great interest to the range, and coupled with the rumor that the mine at Orelands will be opened soon, give grounds for considerable optimism in regard to the success of this shipping season.

BASEBALL NOTES

Base hits continue to fly from the bat wielded by Sparkie Adams.

There are rumors that the Reading franchise will be removed at the end of the season.

Joel Skelton, from Philadelphia semi-pro ranks, is doing good work on the mound for Easton.

The Giants have signed Outfielder Joe Connell and Pitcher Al Smith, both from Villa Nova college.

A. Bowen McConnell, shortstop, has been chosen captain of next year's University of Chicago baseball team.

Ed Wells of the Tigers has the reputation of being one of the slowest pitchers in the American league.

Richard "Red" Smith of Combined Locks, Wis., was elected captain of the 1927 Notre Dame baseball team.

Cuban baseball players have invaded the Florida league. Three of the four pitchers of the Tampa club are from the island republic.

S. B. Jones, 27, center fielder on the University of Oklahoma baseball team for the past two years, has been elected captain of the 1927 squad.

Fourteen scheduled games have already been postponed in the Pacific Coast league. Last year only seven were postponed during the whole season.

"Buzz" Arlett, heavy hitter of the Oakland (Calif.) ball club, has been with the team nine years but has never had a trial by a major league team.

The average player in the sixteen major league baseball clubs is an athlete twenty-eight years old, five feet eleven inches tall and weighs 172 pounds.

In a game with the Giants the other day the Pirates combed out thirteen hits, seven for extra bases. Five were doubles, one a triple and the other a homer by the youthful Paul Waner.

The way Lew Fonseca is playing for Newark may cause him to return to the majors ere long. Ever since the season opened he has led the international in batting, and critics say he also is the best fielding second sacker in the loop.

CONDITION OF COTTON CROP

TENSION OVER FRENCH SITUATION RELIEVED

New York, July 23—With the tension over the French situation relieved by a further recovery in francs and when fears regarding the increase in the bank rate after Thursday's close disappeared the market gave a better account of itself today.

The main body of stocks was in an unsettled state during the morning hours and trading developed a more confident tone due to the supply of credit money available at 4 per cent. Traction advanced on news of the settlement of the Interborough strike. Issues like Burns Bros "A" and Cast Iron Pipe also advanced. But the uprush had nothing like its recent aggressiveness and the market showed traces of nervousness up to the close. The market closed irregular.

Karnak Worked As If Made to Order For Him

St. Paul Man's Entire System Seemed Like it Was "Out of Gear" Till He Took This Medicine—But Peterson Is Now Like a Different Person.

"Why, this medicine, Karnak, worked like it was made to order for my case, and has just made me feel like a new man," declares Eric B. "Pete" Peterson, of 67 Concord St., St. Paul, Minn., well known proprietor of the Frederick Hotel Barbership. "I tell you, I was completely run down and tired out all the time before I got this medicine," explains Mr. Peterson. "My meals wouldn't agree with me, my liver was sluggish, and I was always suffering with gas and biliousness."

"My nerves were on edge, too, and I was restless day and night. My whole system seemed out of gear, and I would tire easily at my work, and then couldn't get any rest at night. Then, on top of all of this, I got the 'flu' and it left me in still worse condition than ever.

"Believe me, I am sure glad I got hold of Karnak. I just got better every day when I began taking this medicine, and it has certainly built me up and put in fine condition again. I have a splendid appetite now, everything agrees with me, and that weak, wornout feeling is all gone."

"My nerves are steady now, and nights I sleep sound and restful. Why, I have so much new strength and energy now that I get out and go walking after my day's work and enjoy it. I tell you, Karnak has simply put my entire system in perfect condition—this medicine is miles ahead of anything I ever heard of."

Karnak is sold in Brainerd by all good drug stores, and by leading druggists in every town.

DEERWOOD TO PLAY BRAINERD GOLFERS SUNDAY

TOURNAMENT TO START AT THE COUNTRY CLUB AT 1:30 P. M.
INTERESTING MATCHES ON

SECOND ANNUAL TOURIST TOUR-NAMENT TO BE HELD AT CLUB ON AUGUST 1

An interesting golf tournament is planned for Sunday morning at 8 o'clock at the Brainerd Country club
when a picked team from Deerwood Country club will play local members.

The second annual tourist tournament will be held at the Brainerd
Country club at 1:30 o'clock Sunday, August 1. A large entry is expected. The tournament is open to all tourists who will compete for prizes, playing local members.

Credit is due to J. H. Krekelberg chairman of the grounds committee, for the construction of the new entrance to the links.

Friend of Players

Photograph shows John O. Seys, secretary of the Chicago National League Baseball club, who attends to the wants of the Chicago players at home and on the road. Incidentally, he performs the other duties pertaining to his office.

BASEBALL NOTES

Base hits continue to fly from the bat wielded by Sparkie Adams.

There are rumors that the Reading franchise will be removed at the end of the season.

Joel Skelton, from Philadelphia semi-pro ranks, is doing good work on the mound for Easton.

The Giants have signed Outfielder
Joe Connell and Pitcher Al Smith, both from Villa Nova college.

A. Bowen McConnell, shortstop, has been chosen captain of next year's University of Chicago baseball team.

Ed Wells of the Tigers has the reputation of being one of the slowest pitchers in the American league.

Richard "Red" Smith of Combined Locks, Wis., was elected captain of the 1927 Notre Dame baseball team.

Cuban baseball players have invaded the Florida league. Three of the four pitchers of the Tampa club are from the island republic.

S. B. Jones, '27, center fielder on the University of Oklahoma baseball team for the past two years, has been elected captain of the 1927 squad.

Fourteen scheduled games have already been postponed in the Pacific Coast league. Last year only seven were postponed during the whole season.

"Buzz" Arlett, heavy hitter of the Oakland (Calif.) ball club, has been with the team nine years but has never had a trial by a major league team.

The average player in the sixteen major league baseball clubs is an athlete twenty-eight years old, five feet eleven inches tall and weighs 172 pounds.

In a game with the Giants the other day the Pirates combed out thirteen hits, seven or extra bases. Five were doubles, one a triple and the other a home run by the youthful Paul Waner.

The way Lew Fonseca is playing for Newark may cause him to return to the majors ere long. Ever since the season opened he has led the international in batting, and critics say he also is the best fielding second sacker in the loop.

Is, or Are, or Will Be

One of the real delights of this cli-days during the summer when a person feels safe in going without an

CONDITION OF COTTON CROP

Washington, July 23.—The condition of the cotton crop was 70.7 per cent of normal on July 16, indicating a crop of 15,368,000 bales for 1926, the crop reporting board of the agricultural department estimated today.

TENSION OVER FRENCH SITU- TION RELIEVED

New York, July 23.—With the tension over the French situation relieved by a further recovery in francs and when fears regarding the increase in the bank rate after Thursday's close disappeared the market gave a better account of itself today.

The main body of stocks was in an unsettled state during the morning hours and trading developed a more confident tone due to the supply of credit money available at 4 per cent.

Tensions advanced on news of the settlement of the Interborough strike.
Issues like Burns Bros "A" and Cast Iron Pipe also advanced. But the uprush had nothing like its recent aggressiveness and the market showed traces of nervousness up to the close.
The market closed irregular.

Karnak Worked As If Made to Order For Him

St. Paul Man's Entire System Seemed Like it Was "Out of Gear" Till He Took This Medicine—But Peterson Is Now Like a Different Person.

"Why, this medicine, Karnak, worked like it was made to order for my case, and has just made me feel like a new man," declares Eric B. "Pet" Peterson, of 67 Concord St., St. Paul, Minn., well known proprietor of the Frederick Hotel Barbershop.

"I tell you, I was completely run down and tired out all the time before
I got this medicine," explains Mr.
Peterson. "My meals wouldn't agree with me, my liver was sluggish, and I was always suffering with gas and biliousness."

"My nerves were on edge, too, and I was restless day and night. My whole system seemed out of gear, and I would tire easily at my work, and then couldn't get any rest at night.

Then, on top of all of this, I got the 'flu' and it left me in still worse condition than ever.

"Believe me, I am sure glad I got hold of Karnak. I just got better every day when I began taking this medicine, and it has certainly built me up and put in fine condition again.
I have a splendid appetite now, everything agrees with me, and that weak, wornout feeling is all gone.

"My nerves are steady now, and nights I sleep sound and restful. Why,
I have so much new strength and energy now that I get out and go walking after my day's work and enjoy it.
I tell you, Karnak has simply put my entire system in perfect condition—this medicine is miles ahead of anything I ever heard of."

Karnak is sold in Brainerd by all good drug stores, and by leading druggists in every town.

THE BRAINERD DISPATCH

Birds and Gases

Experiments have shown that birds are much less affected by poisonous gases than man. Sparrows and domestic pigeons resisted mustard gas and several other war gases, showing little sign of distress. In quantities that would have killed soldiers, and another weapon against such pests as the sparrows has proved worthless.

Who Are Hunkies?

"Hunkie" is a slang term of contempt and derision which is applied to foreigners, especially to immigrants from southern Europe. Apparently the origin of the word is unknown.
Like the words dago, wop, kike, harp, bohunk, greaser, spick, polack, chink and many others, it is not used by people who regard the feelings of others.—Pathfinder Magazine.
